Paso Robles Joint Unified School District to Host Job Fair Expo on July 13

District seeks Paraeducators, Bus Drivers, Food Service Workers, Clerical Staff, and more for the upcoming school year.

Paso Robles, Calif. — The Paso Robles Joint Unified School District (PRJUSD) will host a Job Fair Expo on Monday, July 13, 2026, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM. The event will be held in the PRJUSD District Board Room, 800 Niblick Road in Paso Robles.

The Job Fair Expo will connect applicants with a variety of impactful, classified support positions essential for the upcoming school year. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn about available positions, ask questions, receive assistance with the application process, and explore the benefits of working in public education.

Applicants are encouraged to bring a current résumé to the Job Fair Expo. Those planning to attend are invited to review current openings and apply in advance through PRJUSD's online recruitment portal. Individuals who are unable to attend may also use the same link to explore available positions and submit an application online.

PRJUSD offers comprehensive benefits, retirement through the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS), paid holidays, and work schedules that align with the school calendar, making many positions especially attractive for those seeking a family-friendly career.

Open Positions Include:

- Paraeducators: Provide instructional, behavioral, and academic support to students.
- Bus Drivers & Transportation Assistants: Safely transport students and support daily transportation operations.
- Food Service Workers: Prepare and serve nutritious meals for students.
- Playground Supervisors: Help provide safe, positive, and engaging recreational recess periods.
- Clerical Support: Support school sites and departments through front office and administrative services.
