

PRJUSD Brings Coffee with the Superintendent into the Community Thursday, October 29

PASO ROBLES, Calif. (October 27, 2026) — Paso Robles Joint Unified School District (PRJUSD) is taking its Coffee with the Superintendent series beyond district offices and into the community, inviting residents to join Superintendent Jennifer Loftus for an informal morning of conversation on Thursday, October 29, at 8:00 a.m. at Cider Creek Bakery in Paso Robles.

The gathering offers parents, guardians, and community members an opportunity to connect directly with Superintendent Loftus, ask questions, share ideas, and learn more about the programs, initiatives, and priorities shaping Paso Robles schools.

By hosting Coffee with the Superintendent at local businesses and gathering places, PRJUSD hopes to connect with more residents, hear their perspectives, and build stronger relationships with the families they serve.

No formal agenda or presentation is planned. Community members are encouraged to stop by, enjoy a cup of coffee, and participate in an open conversation about public education in Paso Robles.
