Fort Hunter Liggett to Host 85th Anniversary Open House with Free Concert and Fireworks

FORT HUNTER LIGGETT, Calif. – Fort Hunter Liggett invites the public to its free 85th Anniversary Open House on Saturday, May 2, from 3:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Schoonover Airfield. The celebration features a special performance by up-and-coming country music duo Two Story Roads, a spectacular fireworks show, and a wide variety of activities and displays.

The event also showcases a fleet of historical and current military vehicles from three museums and various Army and Navy units. Guests can enjoy a diverse selection of food from local vendors, explore information booths from our community partners, and engage in numerous family-friendly activities.

The celebration marks 85 years of Fort Hunter Liggett's service as a key training facility for the U.S. Army and other military branches. It is the largest Army Reserve installation and the seventh largest Army installation in the country, providing critical training areas to support military readiness. "We are thrilled to open our gates to the community and celebrate this significant milestone," said the Fort Hunter Liggett Commander Jason McKenzie. "This open house is a fantastic opportunity for the public to learn more about how we support Warrior Readiness and to enjoy a day of fun, entertainment, and community spirit."
