JD Project to Kick-Off Paso Robles Summer Concerts in the Park Thursday, June 13

PASO ROBLES, CA – JD Project, a central coast band performing rock and country music, will kick-off the 2024 summer Concerts in the Park season on Thursday, June 13 at 6 p.m. in City Park (Spring Street and 12th Street) in Paso Robles. The four-piece band comprised of a group of talented musicians are local favorites known for their high energy, fun show. The JD Project concert is sponsored by RE/MAX Success, Henry Elisarraraz State Farm Insurance, and The Blueprinter & Graphics.

Each summer, the Paso Robles REC Foundation and the City of Paso Robles collaborate to host a free concert series on Thursday evenings in the City Park gazebo. Hundreds of locals along with savvy visitors flock to the park for great music, food, drink and dancing in a charming setting. Concerts in the Park will continue weekly on Thursday nights June 13 through August 22 (except for Thursdays, July 4 and 25).

“Our concert series has become a favorite summer tradition among locals and visitors alike,” commented Lynda Plescia, Manager of Recreation Services for the City of Paso Robles. “We are so excited for the fantastic and diverse musical lineup that we have planned this season. There’s no doubt that City Park is the place to be on Thursday evenings this summer!”
