Teen Volunteers in the Library!

Library to offer new opportunities to area teens

PASO ROBLES, CA –April 25, 2024 The Paso Robles City Library invites area teens, ages 16-18, to check out the Library’s new teen volunteer opportunities—long-term, short-term, and virtual! Long-term opportunities available now include:

- Computer/Printing Assistance Offering very basic computer and printing assistance, after school or Saturdays
- Shelving Getting items back where they belong, after school or Saturdays
- Book Cleaning Giving well-used books a little TLC, after school or Saturdays
- Book Reviewing Working with Youth Services Librarian on reviewing and recommending good reads to fellow teens—VIRTUAL OPPORTUNITY

Between June 10-August 10, the Summer Reading Program will offer on- and off-site opportunities for area teens. They will include assistance with:

- Beanstack Registration & Prize Distribution Weekdays and Saturdays, 1:00-3:00 pm, in the Library
- Lunch Distribution Wednesdays (Library) and Fridays (Centennial Park), 10:00-1:30 pm
- Programs & Performances Wednesdays in the Library 2-4 pm
- Social Media Wednesdays in the Library, 2-4 pm
- Fun Activities for Kids Fridays 12-4:00 at Centennial Park

Applications for both ongoing and summer teen opportunities can be found at prcity.com. More information about the 2024 Summer Reading Program coming soon.

The Library is open Monday-Friday 9-7 and Saturday 9-4. Call the library at 805-237-3870 or visit prcity.com/library and the Library Facebook and Instagram sites for more information.
