Paso Robles Police Investigate Shooting

PASO ROBLES – On 03/16/2024, about 13 minutes after midnight, the Paso Robles Police Department started receiving several calls regarding a single shot heard in the 3100 block of Spring Street. Officers arrived on scene and located a parked vehicle with its front right passenger window shot out. Inside the parked vehicle was a solo occupant in the passenger seat, who slept through the entire ordeal. Fortunately, this person was uninjured.

At about 00:30 a.m., as officers and detectives were on scene, a second shot was heard a few blocks north, in the 3400 block of Spring Street. Officers converged on the area but were unable to locate the second shooting.

The suspect is described as a slender male, wearing jeans and a black hooded sweatshirt.

This is an ongoing investigation, and the Paso Robles Police Department is requesting anyone with any information to call the PRPD at (805) 237-6464 or persons wishing to remain anonymous are encouraged to call Crime Stoppers' 24-hour hotline at 805-549-STOP or by texting "SLOTIPS" plus your message" to CRIMES (274637).
